FUTURE Problem Solving® Australia

Coaching Workshop

This Professional Learning course will teach you how to improve your students' analytical, creative, and critical thinking skills, using the six-step Future Problem Solving process to address real-world problems.

The presenter will use the 2027 topic, Digital Dark Age, to introduce the creative problem solving model, providing the attendee with a head start to Future Problem Solving 2027 participation.

When and Where?
Friday, 12 March 2027, 9.15am - 3.30pm
Perry Lakes Room at The Boulevard Centre, 99 The Boulevard, Floreat

Who can attend?

- Educators seeking to coach Global Issues students
- FPS coaches looking to refresh their skills
- Educators seeking a framework to teach and assess problem solving

What will I learn in this training program?

- The basics of Future Problem Solving (FPS) in Australia.
- The six-step FPS thinking process, which serves as the foundation for each of the Future Problem Solving programs.
- An in-depth understanding of the Global Issues program, allowing participants to practice the six-step model in a supportive environment.

The course content aligns with AITSL standards, enabling participants to earn up to six hours towards their professional accreditation requirements.

What are the benefits of FPS?
